

CUT DOWN YOUR PHONE BILL

CUT DOWN YOUR PHONE BILL

FREE Calls Worldwide Through Your Computer

It is not that long ago most of us looked very skeptical when somebody said we would not have to stamp and send letters anymore...We could send our letters for free on something called the Internet...and they would even be delivered instantly! Let's admit it; to some of us it did sound a bit Sci-Fi.

Never-the-less; today e-mail is every-day-life to most of us.

Something similar is happening right now to telecommunication. Sky-high phone bills are Dinosaurs....and if you still find them in your mail...you need to get up to speed on a few things. Huge phone bills are a left-over from the last millennium! You do not have to pay that kind of bills! And even better: you never have to cut off a call anymore because you know you are running up your bill. These days are over for good! Never again. Finito - over and out! Capishe?

Save your money Call the World for FREE

Today, Skype is one of the world's fastest growing telecommunication operators with more than 147 million people who have downloaded the software program so far and 47 million registered users. The figure is growing at 400,000 new downloads per day ... which means that the figures are already outdated when you read this!

Living in rural Andalucia in the mountains, where I haven't been able to get a fixed line telephone - Skype almost revolutionized my life, when I finally got wireless internet, which meant that I could have all the advantages of a fixed line telephone without having to pay for one - but solely by using Skype.

It felt like Christmas every day for a while - to be able to communicate local, abroad and worldwide.

If you are still not among the millions who have downloaded Skype for free – don't despair you will get your chance in a little while...

If you are already using Skype to Skype but have a few issues to sort out like; how do I call people who aren't on Skype and how do they call me? Hang in there...you will find your answers in a heartbeat.

What Can I Do With Skype

- 1) Skype to Skype for FREE – allows you to call other people who use Skype for free. Using Skype to call another person who also has Skype is totally free. Yep, absolutely nothing. Zip. Zero. Zilch!

1. Skype to Skype for FREE

One of the great thing about Skype is, you can use your internet connection and turn your computer into an Internet phone and make free Skype-to-Skype calls.

Skype is a computer program that allows anyone with a broadband access to make free phone calls to other Skype users anywhere in the world with an amazingly good sound quality.

All you need to get started using Skype is a broadband connection, a computer, a headset, (with microphone and headphones), a wireless phone, (USB Cordless DUAL phone) - and then you need to:

As soon as you have done that you can make calls for free to other Skype users worldwide. Where Skype gets really brilliant is when you buy a DUAL phone, which connects to both the computer and telephone, because now you have a phone where people can continue to call you, as they have done so far and where you can call both Skype users and Non Skype users...and best of all – you can walk away from the computer and get comfortable in the sofa with your legs up while you talk to friends and families.

If you don't have a headset with microphone and headphones....

2. Call phones from Skype

After you have enjoyed calling Skype to Skype for free for a while you might start to get a tiny bit frustrated because you can't call your mother and the dentist and quite a few others; because they are not on Skype. By now you have of course made everybody you can persuade download Skype, so you can talk for free - but unfortunately you still have a long list of people you need to call that are not on Skype.

That's not a problem. Skype Out and Skype Calling Plan – allows you to call landlines and mobiles around the world at local rates.

It's easy and quite inexpensive to call both local and international phones and mobiles directly from Skype. The clever guide inside Skype will help you dial the number the right way (including those tricky plusses or double zeroes you need sometimes) and you can just chat away.

How much does it cost?

There are two ways to pay to make calls:

Skype Out: Pay As You Go; you add some money to your account and then you just pay for calls as you make them. There's a flat rate of just 1.7 Euro per minute (incl. VAT) to over 30 destinations. When you add € 10 to your credit – you can make quite a lot of calls and when the credit runs out – you just top it up. Easy!

Monthly subscriptions include unlimited calls to landlines in selected countries and regions any time, day or night and no long term contract.

Which solution to choose is really up to your personal needs?

I have found that using a combination of Pay As You Go for mobile calls and countries outside of Europe and a Monthly subscription to Unlimited Europe cover my calling needs for only € 14.95 per month plus VAT. I am Danish living in Spain with family and friends in both Denmark and the UK and with this arrangement I can call my daughter in the UK daily, land lines in Spain and Denmark as well - without worrying about horrible phone bills. It makes distance disappear and the world seem more accessible.

You will need to find out what your calling needs are. Do you call abroad a lot or do you only make calls within your own country? If you only call within your own country – go for the Unlimited Country subscription. With the Unlimited Europe subscription you can call land lines in 20 European countries unlimited for free. Finally the ultimate choice is Unlimited World – where you can call landlines in the whole world for only € 8.95 per month and talk for as long as you like....

You see; huge phone bills are a left-over from the last millennium – and you have the power to stop them right NOW!

Skype comes with some really useful free features like Skype-to-Skype calls, video calling and instant messaging (IM).

But, when you take out a subscription or purchase a little pay as you go Skype Credit you can do so much more. And the great thing is that you'll save loads of money in the process.

3. Your Online Phone Number

An online number SkypeIn is perfect if you have friends, family or business colleagues who don't use Skype.

People can call you from from any phone or mobile worldwide and you pick up the call in Skype.

How does an online number work?

You buy an online number in one of over 20 locations and your friends, family or business contacts can call that number and only pay for a standard rate call (if they are in the same country as your online number).

The online number uses the internet to route the call and so saves them money. It makes absolutely no difference wherever you are, You can pick up the call at no cost to you wherever in the world you are logged into Skype.

Friends in the same country as your number only pay a local rate to call you – and you pay nothing to answer the call.

People can call your online number from any landline or mobile phone.

Even if you're online away from home or work, the call will find you and your Skype will ring.

Let's say you are an British expat living in Spain but you would like your family, friends and maybe even business contacts to be able to call you with no extra expense for them. You then buy yourself a UK phone number and all your UK-contacts can call you at a local UK rate from any landline or mobile. Pretty clever – eh?

How much does it cost?

You can get an online phone number for €15 for 3 months or €50 for a full year. (€17.25 and €57.50 where VAT applies).

But if you already have a monthly subscription you can get up to 50% off.

Numbers are now available in over 20 countries:

- Australia
- Brazil
- Chile
- Denmark
- Dominican Republic
- Estonia
- Finland
- France
- Germany
- Hong Kong
- Hungary
- Ireland
- Italy
- Korea, Republic of
- Mexico
- New Zealand
- Poland
- Romania
- Sweden
- Switzerland
- United Kingdom
- USA

The package also includes free voicemail

4. Skype for Business

Now that you're up and running, utilize features that can help your staff keep in touch while they're out of the office, like voicemail and call forwarding.

You can also buy and distribute calling credit amongst your team so they can call phones and mobiles to talk to people who don't use Skype, and save money at the same time. Plus you can set up online numbers so clients, partners and potential new customers have a number they can call you on from any phone or mobile, and you pick up in Skype.

If you are doing business internationally you could have a UK number, a US number and whatever numbers you need to give your customers easy and cheap contact options.
